SECTION A: UNIQUE ID AND PIN

Please provide below the Unique ID and PIN contained in the email or postcard notice that you received. If you do not have the Unique ID and PIN, please leave this section blank and proceed to Section B.

Unique ID
PIN

- If you received a Notice and it provided that you are in Group 1, you do not need to submit a claim to be eligible for a payment. Please go to Section B below to provide your contact information.
- If you received a Notice and it provided that you are in Group 2 or 3, Apple's records reflect that you had a single Topcase Replacement or one or more Keycap Replacements. To be eligible for payment, you must declare that the repair did not resolve your keyboard issues, and sign and submit your completed claim form. Please complete Sections B, E, and F.
- If you received a Notice, but it did not indicate what Group you are in, Apple's records do not reflect that you had either a Topcase or Keycap Replacement. If you did obtain a Topcase or Keycap Replacement, you must complete this claim form and: (1) provide reasonable documentation containing information, as detailed below, showing that you obtained a Topcase or Keycap Replacement; (2) declare that the repair did not resolve your keyboard issues; and (3) sign and submit your completed claim form. Please complete sections B, D, E, and F.
- If you did not receive a Notice, Apple's records do not reflect that you purchased an eligible MacBook or that you had either a Topcase or Keycap Replacement. To submit a claim, you must complete all sections of this claim form and (1) provide proof of purchase of an eligible MacBook; (2) provide reasonable documentation containing information, as detailed below, showing that you obtained a Topcase or Keycap Replacement; (3) declare that the repair did not resolve your keyboard issues; and (4) sign and submit a completed claim form. Please complete all sections of this claim form.

SECTION B: NAME AND CONTACT INFORMATION

Please provide your name and contact information below. If you received a Notice and it provided that you are in Group 1, you may provide your Unique ID and PIN in section A and use this section to update your contact information if you choose, but you are not required to submit a Claim Form or complete any other section. If your name or contact information changes after you submit this Claim Form, please notify the Settlement Administrator of the new information.

Full Name
Street Address
City	State	Zip Code
Email Address	Phone Number

SECTION C: PROOF OF PURCHASE

If you are a Group 2 or 3 Settlement Class Member, skip to Section E. If you received a notice but it does not indicate what Group you are in, skip to Section D.

Otherwise, because Apple does not have a record of you purchasing an eligible MacBook, please provide your device serial number below.

MACBOOK SERIAL NUMBER

If you do not have a serial number for your device, you may submit reasonable documentation showing:

- the model purchased;
- seller;
- purchase date (month/year);
- the amount of the purchase;

Reasonable documentation includes, for example, an email from an Apple Store or retailer, receipt, or credit card statement. If your documentation does not include all of the information above, you may fill it in below.

If you do not have a serial number or reasonable documentation of purchase containing the information above, you may still submit a claim by providing the information below:

Purchase Model:	Purchase Date (month/year):
Seller Name:
Seller Location:	Purchase Price:

SECTION D: PROOF OF REPAIR

If you are a Group 2 or 3 Settlement Class Member, skip to Section E.

Otherwise, because Apple's records do not reflect that you had either a Topcase or Keycap Replacement, you must provide reasonable documentation showing:

- You had either a Topcase or Keycap Replacement;
  - A Topcase Replacement refers to the replacement of the full keyboard module (including the battery, track pad, speakers, top case, and keyboard), performed by Apple or an Apple Authorized Service Provider.
  - A Keycap Replacement refers to the replacement of one or more keycaps on a keyboard, performed by Apple or an Apple Authorized Service Provider, and does not involve replacement of the full keyboard module.
- The date (month/year) of your Topcase or Keycap Replacement;
- The name and location of the Apple retail store or Apple Authorized Service Provider that provided the Topcase or Keycap Replacement;
- The amount paid for the repair, if applicable.

Reasonable documentation includes, for example, receipts, emails from Apple or an Apple Authorized Service Provider, repair records, insurance or extended warranty claims, or customer service chat logs. If your documentation is missing some of the information above, you may fill it in below. But you must provide some form of documentation demonstrating that you obtained either a Topcase or Keycap Replacement.

If your documentation is missing any portion of the information listed above, you may still submit a claim by providing the information below:

Repair Type:	Repair Date (month/year):
Repair Provider:	Repair Provider Location:
Amount of Repair (or $0, if you were not charged):

SECTION E:

I hereby declare under penalty of perjury that the keyboard repair did not resolve the keyboard issues I had with my Class Computer. To be eligible for a payment for any claim, you must declare that the repair did not resolve your keyboard issues by checking this box.
